SWEA, Swedish Women's Educational Association Inc., is a global non-profit organization for Swedish speaking women who live or have lived abroad. SWEA's objective is to protect the Swedish language, support and inform about our culture and traditions. Also SWEA will act as an intermediary in supplying personal and professional contacts and establish a network for its members throughout the world. SWEA supports education through scholarships and various projects with a Swedish connection.

SWEA has approximately 7,500 members in 73 chapters in 33 countries on five continents.

It was started by Agneta Nilsson in Los Angeles in 1979. Princess Christina, Mrs. Magnuson, is Honorary President.

International President since 2012:
Margaret Sikkens Ahlquist.
